Throughout the large majority of the music video, there are many literal translations. For example, when the line discussing the riptide is sung, a visual representation of a riptide is presented on screen. This causes the video to appear with a more simplistic view; essentially helping the audience to further engage. With this image being repeated every time the chorus is played, the audience ...

"Vance Joy's Riptide video is a good example of an illustrative music video as it has strong images to transfer an obvious motif throughout the generally upbeat song. It can be argued that the video does not follow a narrative; however when the images are looked at closely, it could be seen as a story about a relationship.
