Lasch-Quinn maintains that the instruments of white supremacy—slavery and segregation—are gone but that the "race experts" would have America believe that "virulent white racism and white supremacist attitudes" are still omnipresent, manifested by African Americans' being subject to a world of endless slights and negative stereotypes.

Race Experts: How Racial Etiquette, Sensitivity Training ...

The "race experts," whom Lasch-Quinn attacks acerbically and caustically, are a diverse group of encounter-group leaders, racial identity theoreticians, co-counselors, diversity trainers, and educators who have worked to include issues of identity in their teaching. They would probably be surprised to find themselves lumped together.
