Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Take Me With You

What's the deal with the Take Me With You brand? Just like it says on the side of the bottle, Take Me With You is a growing community of wine lovers and travelers sharing their experiences with family, friends, and beyond. I envision a more immersive experience than just hammering back some glasses of chardonnay.

Take Me With You Wine

This is a well-written and very moving book. The newly-developing connections between family members across a 90 mile body of water give poignant life to "Take Me With You." The secondary story, and to my mind, the most important part, is that the book lets a breathe of fresh air into America's view of a sealed country.

Realize that "take with me/you" and "bring with me/you" do not have the same meaning. Chances are you already know this, but if not it is an important first step. Even if you do recognize the differences at first glance, your subconscious mind may make these mistakes regardless.

How to Use Take With You and Bring With You: 5 Steps

Take Me, Take Me with You is a creepy creepy read. very well done creepiness, as you'd expect from Joyce Carol Oates (writing under a pseudonym here as Lauren Kelly). it's the sort of book that, if you grew up in a violent, booze-soaked household, might cause you to dive for whatever you use to self-medicate.

Take Me, Take Me With You by Lauren Kelly
