The second question, the more typical solution focused question, invites an answer from the client in terms of criteria, in terms of signs. "I will know that I have moved up one point on the scale because I will notice myself beginning to feel more confident, I will be going out more and talking with friends again."

BRIEF - The Language of Solution Focused Brief Therapy

The concept of the miracle question comes to us from a research-based therapeutic approach known as solution-focused therapy. The premise is deceptively simple: when we change our focus from what is wrong to what is right, a shift will occur and we'll begin to see beyond our anxiety. When we see beyond our anxiety, anxiety weakens.
