All Families Are Different

All Families Are Different is realistic nonfiction book by Sol Gordon and illustrated by Vivien Cohen. This book describes in detail how families are not made up how they use to be and how every family is unique in their own way. I think that this book is appropriate for older students because of the length of the text on most of the pages.

All Families Are Different

Hello Everyone! We began a week long study of estimating this week. That is always a daunting skill for first graders, so our district decided to approach the concept a little bit differently. We want the kids to understand what estimating is all about, but not using great quantities of things.
