I've got a 2001 TT Roadster that has a bad "parking" light on the front passenger side. For accuracy, it's the one that lights the same horizontal yellow lens that the directional uses inside the headlight assembly. According to my ELSAWIN program, that bulb should be in the same housing as the main headlight, but it is not!

This video demonstrates how to change a burnt out taillight bulb on your 2008 Audi TT Quattro. Some of the other bulbs in the tail light cluster such as the brake light or turn signal may also function as the tail light in your TT Quattro. It is possible for the turn signal or brake light to work but the taillight part to be burnt out - replacing the bulb on your TT Quattro will restore functionality to both.
