Come Home Already! - HarperCollins

He has already come. Explanation: Sometimes the insertion of an adjective (in this case "already") makes the verb structure more difficult to see. If the sentence is re-stated as: #color(white)("XXX")# He already has come. it is easier to see the present perfect tense. (Note that despite its name, the "present perfect" is a past action tense). There are 3 (main, see note below) past tenses (in ...
