Jihad in the West

While Islam is generally misunderstood in the West, perhaps no other Islamic term evokes such strong reactions as "jihad". The Arabic word "jihad", which is most always mistranslated as "holy war", simply means "to struggle" or "to exert one's utmost effort".

What is "Jihad"? - Definition Jihad in Islam Religion ...

Germany is also silent for similar reasons. Israel just had three new Muslim partners in the region and anyway it feels that it deserves a break from its perpetual war against Islamic threats. India is exhausted from it's own battle against Islamic jihad while the world watches in silence,etc.

Muslims Around the World Want to Punish France; Where is ...

Jihad in the West attempts to describe the history of Islamic and European conflict over 1,500 years, including moments such as the climactic battle at Tours (if the Moors had won it in 732, much of Europe might be Muslim today), the sieges of Vienna, and the Barbary Corsairs (the battle U.S. Marines refer to when they sing about "the shores of Tripoli"). Such a sweep necessarily sacrifices detail for breadth, yet it still provides a helpful backdrop to understanding a religious movement ...

Jihad in the West: Muslim Conquests from the 7th to the ...

The word Jihad stems from the Arabic root word J-H-D, which means "strive." Other words derived from this root include "effort," "labor" and "fatigue." Essentially, Jihad is an effort to practice religion in the face of oppression and persecution. The effort may come in fighting the evil in your own heart, or in standing up to a dictator.

What Muslims Believe About Jihad - Learn Religions

Most Western writers consider external jihad to have primacy over inner jihad in the Islamic tradition, while much of contemporary Muslim opinion favors the opposite view. Gallup analysis of a large survey reveals considerable nuance in the conceptions of jihad held by Muslims around the world.

Jihad - Wikipedia

In fact, the most serious threat to non-muslims does not come from the obvious terrorists (or not so obvious terrorist). but from the ever larger number of muslims living in the West who tacitly support the aims of islam for world domination and will give their overt support when they feel the moment is ripe for a muslim conquest.
