I am a huge fan of Lawrence Durrell so
was glad to get this copy of Bitter Lemons

to replace one that has wandered off in the past fifty years. While this is not as lyrical a book as Prospero's Cell or even some of his fiction, it is an interesting reminder of the pains of war and political disputes on
the ordinary people of
an occupied territory,
regardless of how benevolent the
occupier.
