On the Insignia NS-24E730A12, it was more a dark gray. And the colors on the Insignia seemed off too. What was bright green and golden on the monitor looked muted green and bright white on the NS-24E730A12. Then, I changed the NS-24E730A12's color temperature to "Warm" (it was on "Neutral" before) and that brought some color back into the picture.
