Every child has secrets, and many secrets are fun to keep, for instance, a surprise birthday gift for Mom, or a secret handshake with a young friend. But sometimes, children have secrets that make them feel bad, and these secrets are best shared with their parents, or with some trusted older person.

Do You Have a Secret? by Jennifer Moore-Mallinos

do you have a secret? Children spend much of their time away from the security of their home, and as a result, we are not always able to be with them to ensure their safety. We can, however, introduce knowledge and encourage communication so that our children feel comfortable enough to disclose their secrets, whether they are good or bad.
