Multilevel Democracy by Jefferey M. Sellers

State constitutes the sovereign power-system of the Society. (2) Society is prior to State: Society is rooted in human nature. As social animals people naturally enter into social relationships and form society. The birth of society took place in the earliest period of history. State also has a very long history behind it and yet, everyone agrees, it came after the birth of society.

8 Main Differences Between State and Society

The state is a particular kind of society, a group sovereign over a specific territory, and the balance of powers manifesting this sovereignty is the political system. The political system may not encompass all of society, and indeed may be restricted to a limited sphere. Nonetheless, the type of political system and type of society are congruent.
