What is a Deed / Declaration of Trust & Why Do You Need ...

A trust deed changes who benefits from the property, in other words, who the true owners are. You should register it at the Land Registry (so that it is recorded on the public record). The change of ownership can be enforced in a court. The first consideration is therefore whether making a declaration of trust is in the interests of all parties.

What Is A Deed Or Declaration Of Trust For Property?

A produces a 'trust deed'. A claims the 'trust deed' transfers the right to income to his wife. But even if the trust deed does validly transfer the right to all of the income from A to B, that would constitute a settlement of the right to income, because A would still retain an interest in the property itself.
