A Generation of Sociopaths Quotes by Bruce Cannon Gibney

In his new book, A Generation of Sociopaths, writer and venture capitalist Bruce Gibney puts forth the controversial hypothesis that baby boomers — specifically the large subset of white, middle-class boomers — are, both individually and as a group, unusually sociopathic. Gibney cites mental health data showing boomers have significantly higher levels of antisocial traits and behaviors — including lack of empathy, disregard for others, egotism and impulsivity — than other generations.
