On my way to spending a relaxing weekend with my family in a cabin in the woods (our trip was not nearly as eventful as the Joss Whedon film), I picked up the "Tom Clancy presented" novelization Act of Valor written by Dick Couch and George Galdorisi. Right off the bat, slapping Tom Clancy's name on something is a good idea from a marketing perspective but might not always be in the best interests of Clancy's brand in the long term.

Tom Clancy Presents: Act of Valor by Dick Couch

What made the experience of listening to Tom Clancy Presents: Act of Valor the most enjoyable? The suspense, the real drama, the detail and the love story between the main character and his wife. The bravery of America's soldiers who are willing to lay their life down so all Americans can live free and be critical of American military.
