The first step is to cut the edge. If you are creating a new bed, you'll need to use a garden hose to mark your desired lines. If you are freshening up an existing bed, you can jump right in. Method 1: The traditional way to do this is to use either a spade or a half-moon edger to move along the line you've set out. Neither tool does a great job of cutting curves, and it can be difficult to evaluate the course you're taking as you move along.
