One of our most brilliant social critics—and the author of the bestselling The Middle Mind—presents a scathing critique of the delusions of science alongside a rousing defense of the role of art and philosophy in our culture. The so-called new atheists, most famously Richard Dawkins and Christopher Hitchens, made a splash in the new millennium, telling the evangelical and the liberal believer that they must give up religion and submit to science.

Michele Bachmann had the nerve to ask God to “smash the delusion... that Joe Biden is our president” as Republicans continue to deny the simple truth of Donald Trump’s election loss. It would be funny if it wasn’t so tragic: a former congresswoman and one-time Trump aide desperately asking God to take his “iron rod” to “smash the clay jar of deceit in America”.
