Engineering Company Goes Agile Agilefant Engineering company goes agile. In 2014, a team of software engineers from GMB Engineers and Planners led by Claudia Paskauskas, identified the need to transition from the traditional waterfall methods to agile methodology in order to meet the demand of a growing project and client portfolio. Since the team was not fully versed in agile, they decided that choosing a backlog tool that they felt comfortable with and that could grow with the team's maturity in utilizing agile as part of its ...
