Review: Madison’s Gift: Five Partnerships that Built ...

David O. Stewart’s latest book, Madison’s Gift: Five Partnerships That Built America, presents a fresh look at one of the most notable of that first generation of leaders. While many other writers have delved into the life of the fourth president — including, most recently, Lynne Cheney — Stewart has produced a work that synthesizes James Madison’s key relationships and how those principled interactions benefited the new nation.
