Fallen Grace is a 320 page, historical fiction book, written by Mary Hooper. It is about a girl living in Victorian London in 1861 with her sister. Her name is Grace Parkes. Her mother died and her father is nowhere to be found, so Grace takes care of her sister. One day, Grace gives birth to a baby, which sadly died in childbirth.

Fallen Grace by Mary Hooper - Goodreads

Fallen Grace is, in my opinion, by far Mary Hooper's best historical work to date. Her research is always meticulous and the writing always charming and accessible, but this novel has a depth and texture that is new. The many threads in the story make it a satisfying and compelling read, and the portrayal of the rogue undertaker and his ability ...
