Renault Twingo Renault has always been good at producing small cars, and the Twingo is no exception. A tiny city car with a lot of character, it's one of the most popular superminis around, and for good reason. Newer models look great, but the overall package has been at the pinnacle of the genre for years.

The original Renault Twingo caused quite a furore in the UK, at least it did given that this was a car never officially sold here. British holidaymakers would return from France, where the car was selling like warm crusty loaves the shape of baseball bats, having glimpsed a cutely curving little city car with round staring headlamps.
