At the beginning of a figure drawing session, the model is often requested to make a series of brief poses in rapid succession. These are called gesture poses, and are typically one to three minutes each. Gesture drawing is a warm-up exercise for many artists, although some artists sketch out the gesture as the first step in every figure drawing.

by Steve Huston. The two most fundamental concepts in Steve Huston's approach to figure drawing are structure and gesture—the parts and the relationship between the parts. "To understand and use the idea of structure well, it's best to think like a sculptor, meaning we build our drawing and painting (as in sculpture) through a series of constructed forms....
