Undead And Unwelcome 8 Maryjanice

Perhaps Mary Janice Davidson has run out of ideas and this series should have come to an end a couple of books ago? The eighth book in the Queen Betsy series, Undead and Unwelcome, takes characters that I used to love and gives them very little in the way of Once upon a time, there was a paranormal series about an unlikely vampire queen named Betsy.

The first part of Undead and Unwelcome seems to be mostly a recap of what happened in book 7. There's quite a bit of explaining who all the characters are and an endless amount of retelling the story of Antonia's death. Personally, I think by book 8 in the series it's time to stop with the endless exposition.
