Complete Icelandic Teach Yourself (Audio Support)

There are only three main Icelandic tuition books on the market: Complete Icelandic, Colloquial Icelandic and this one, which I only found fairly recently. Of the available books Complete Icelandic is a very good all-round introduction with a very appealing technique and Colloquial Icelandic is the more challenging intermediate book, although I found it had some very frustrating shortcomings.

The latest edition is called Complete Icelandic, but there aren't many changes compared to the previous edition which has the title Teach Yourself Icelandic. The audio dialogues are identical, and aside from some formatting changes and the addition of a summary at the end of each chapter, the text is pretty much the same. Colloquial Icelandic, by Daisy L. Neijmann This is another very good book, but definitely more challenging, with most of the audio being read at normal or near-normal speed.
