Designer Toys, also called art toys, are toys and collectibles created by artists and designers that are either self-produced or made by small, independent toy companies, typically in very limited editions. Artists use a variety of materials, such as ABS plastic, vinyl, wood, metal, latex, plush, and resin. Creators often have backgrounds in graphic design, illustration, or fine art, but many accomplished toy artists are self-taught. The first Designer Toys appeared in the 1990s in Hong Kong and a bit about my art: I am a figurative artist who has a "healthy" obsession with Lego and vintage toys; inspiration comes from my own experiences relating to human emotions and memories of childhood. I like to take that long forgotten or much loved object and give it a moment in the spotlight. Paint is applied both figuratively and abstractly.
