How Great Leaders Inspire Action by Simon Sinek (Transcript)

In the interview, Simon and I discussed what he calls the "Millennial Question"—namely why millennials have a bad rap, and how leaders can create an environment in which they can thrive. On set that day, with an audience of both millennials and older generations, the environment was electric.

Simon Sinek on the Millennial Question - Impact Theory

Simon refers to the challenge of 'instant gratification' and suggests that millennials can have whatever they want whenever they want it. Personally I think he's missing a very important point.
