La partera : story of a midwife (Book, 1980)

[WorldCat.org]

La Partera tells how she gradually emerged as a leader in her community, painstakingly building by hand a small maternity center for her patients while gaining the respect of the Anglo medical community. As

Jesusita's story unfolds, so too does the story of the women of the region. Supplemental sections by the author illuminate Jesusita's culture and past, along with a historical account of the network of medical care provided by Hispanic and Anglo female healers.

La Partera Story Of A Midwife Ann Arbor Paperbacks [PDF]

La Partera is the story of a Doña Jesusita Aragon, a Latina midwife from New Mexico, born in 1908. She tells in her own words how at age fourteen, she delivered her first baby, then was apprenticed to her grandmother. As a young mother, she struggled by herself to raise her three children on the plains of New Mexico.
