 historically, as well as the designs and techniques of making the rallis.

ralli quilts

Traditionally, there are three styles of ralli quilting: patchwork, applique and embroidered. Patchwork is based on colored fabric cut into geometric shapes and stitched together, applique designs are made from cut fabric sewn to another cloth, and embroidered quilts use embroidery as a method to both decorate and hold the quilts together.

Sindh is renowned for producing beautiful textiles that also includes the production of ralli quilts. Ralli quilts are traditional blankets made by artisans in the southern provinces of Pakistan including Sindh, Balochistan, Cholistan Desert as well as the southern border of Punjab and its adjoining states of Gujarat and Rajasthan in India.

The art of creating traditional ralli quilts - Daily Times

I design handmade textiles and have them made by master craftspeople in rural villages of India. My handwoven cotton quilts are reversible, hand-stitched, and machine washable. They are also eco friendly. Like other Western designers working in India, I am helping to keep alive ancient crafts, threatened by factory made products.
