The Rebel Bride (Regency series Book 1) eBook: Coulter ...

I first read The Rebel Bride in its original Signet imprint. Several years later, I picked it up in this new edition.
Either way, it was totally disappointing.
Apparently in the 80's
the idea of the hero
raping the leading lady was considered cutting edge (I didn't think so then and certainly
don't think so now),
because it seemed a
standard trope for many authors.

her loneliness. When Julien St. Clair, Earl of

first time, she is dressed like a boy
while engaged in a rather mock duel with her brother.

The Rebel Bride The Rebel Bride was my second novel. Although it was originally published as a Regency, I always felt that it was a historical romance at heart. So, I've rewritten this story of two stubborn, strong-willed people, and Topaz is bringing it out again for you - this time as the historical it could have been.
