Guided reading is a small-group instructional context in which a teacher supports each reader's development of systems of strategic actions for processing new texts at increasingly challenging levels of difficulty. During guided reading, students in a small-group setting individually read a text that you have selected at their instructional reading level.

What is Guided Reading? - Fountas and Pinnell

Guided reading is part of the literacy block: While you're working with one guided reading group, the rest of your students will be busy, too. Ultimately, they must be able to work productively — without your assistance — for 20 minutes or longer. Students will be moving from activity to activity, working in centers, or reading or writing ...
