Under The Shadow Of Almighty

Abiding under the shadow of the Almighty. The Hebrew word for "abide" from this verse means to literally stop, remain and lodge. The meaning is clear: if we choose to abide under God's shadow, we need to stay and dwell with Him. It is choice we must make. God will not make the decision for you or me. God gave us the gift of free will and He desires that we use this gift in the right way.

God said in James, "Draw nigh to me, or close to me, and I'll draw nigh to you.". Well, to be under the shadow of the Almighty is to be close to the Father. In order to be close to Him, you need to be in fellowship with Him, not out of fellowship with God. Not just a child of God, but you need to be close to the Lord.
