Beneath Him by Komal Kant - Goodreads

Beneath Him is a sweet romance which didn't have tons and tons of sex in it, and I really enjoyed that. (Yes, Michelle, the one who is known for the EckFactor, is getting tired of all the sex.) And the more I thought about this book, the more I truly liked it. "He pulled me to his chest, and when he kissed me, gravity ceased to exist.

Amazon.com: Beneath Him eBook: Kant, Komal: Kindle Store

Beneath Him is told from alternating points of view of the two main characters: Sky and Nicholas (aka Nick). Sky is a strong, independent young woman who doesn't take crap from anyone. Many people, including Nick, think money gives them the distinct privilege to be rude and condescending and think their time is more valuable than the rest.

Komal Kant (Author of Impossible) - Goodreads

"Hey, pal." I tapped him on the shoulder. He jerked away from me as though a leper had touched him. My mouth fell open a little as I was confronted with his face. The guy was attractive. Really attractive. He had a chiseled jaw with a cleft on his chin, dark hair that fell into azure blue eyes, and a deep tan that was accentuated by his ...

My words didn't seem to have any effect on him at all because all he did was sneer at me, like I was an ugly duckling who had dared to speak to a beautiful swan. All of a sudden, I felt naked. It was like one of those bad dreams where you got up in front of the entire school to give a speech and then for some irrational reason you were naked.
