The House of Dreams

The House Of Dreams

The 'House of Dreams' is a life project, an eclectic installation of Stephen's collections and memories, sculptures and mosiacs, taking over the entirity of the ground floor and garden of his East Dulwich home.

Stephen Wright | House of Dreams | London

I loved this place. With the House of Dreams artist Stephen Wright has turned his home into a living work of art. He uses his personal experiences as a starting point for decorating his home. Works include puppet and doll making, art boxes, mosaics, painting and furniture design to create an exuberant expression of his life. Materials are carefully selected - but are materials that by others maybe over looked - hair rollers, vintage photographs, religious imagery, badges, stickle bricks ...

... John Seagrove, a young city clerk, awakes early one morning in his London bedsit desperately clinging to a dream that has just transformed his life. The next day at dinner at his boss's house he meets the enigmatic Allegra Kerr. Falling in love with her at first sight John instantly realises this is the overwhelming joy his dream had foreshadowed but could darker forces be at work?

The House of Dreams by Agatha Christie - Agatha Christie

The House of Dreams moves between two time periods, the 1940's Nazi occupied France and the year 2000 in Long Island. The 1940's France story is centered on The American Relief Center run by Varian Fry, also known in present day as "America's Schindler." It is their mission to help well known artists and intellectuals escape to the United States.

Little House of Dreams was created as an intimate place to house all our founder's dreams. A simple philosophy was to create bakes that exude a homemade taste, just like how mum does it, while incorporating our signature pretty spin on the final aesthetics. Our mission is to always have fun, laugh and be happy!
