Very Bad Things is not for the faint hearted, I can't say it is angst ridden because it didn't leave me with that impression. It did re-affirm the believe that you never really know someone unless you can walk a mile in their shoes. Being empathetic is one of our greatest gifts as humans and should be celebrated as such.

Very Bad Things is the story of Nora and Leo, two souls so lost and numb they are barely hanging on. Nora suffers in silence, spending all her time playing the perfect daughter, student, model citizen, when all she really wants is to be loved. She yearns to be someone's first choice.

Review : Very Bad Things (Briarcrest Academy #1) by Ilsa ...

Very Wicked Things is one of those stories where the reader is gifted with a taste of several genres. First and foremost, though, VWT was a second-chance-type love story about two high school seniors--wealthy, Briarcrest Academy football star, Cuba, and scholarship student/ballerina, Dovey, product of one of Dallas' worst neighborhoods.
