The Shadow And Rose Ash

I love stories where a famous/popular guy falls for the girl next door but there was so much more to the Shadow and the Rose than a simple love story. In fact, this love story was far from simple! 16 year old Joy Sumner is enrolled at Ash Grove High School for Performing Arts where only the elite and talented students are taken.

My inspiration for The Shadow and the Rose was a centuries-old Scottish ballad called "Tam Lin," about a handsome knight who is kidnapped by the queen of the fae and rescued by a brave mortal girl who has fallen in love with him. To me, the Tam Lin story is about having faith in the person you love even when they show you unattractive, even scary sides of themselves... and even when your rival is a supernatural temptress!

The Shadow and the Rose is an interesting story. It starts off a bit slow but eventually gets going. I felt like the main characters were rushed in their relationship as they hadn't even exactly forged a friendship first. Because of this, I don't feel very invested in the characters as I normally do.
