The actual history is a little obscure. It is debated whether Valentine's Day originated from the ancient Roman festival of Lupercalia, a fertility celebration. There's a thought that this festival had pagan origins and was recast by Pope Gelasius I as a Christian feast day around 496 AD, who declared February 14 to be St Valentine's Day.

The Traditions of St Valentine's Day - The history ...

A long time ago Valentine's Day used to be a Christian celebration, that was started as early as 496 AD to commemorate a martyr, later declared a saint called, you guessed it, Valentinus. How exactly this love day came to be as we know it today is not exactly clear, but we don't really care about the hows and whys and are happy to munch on heart-shaped chocolates on February the 14th each year.
