Soccer Drill Manual

A drill is a soccer training 'picture' of how you want your players to deal with a particular situation. It is usually a weak point of your team that needs to be worked on, hence the need to simplify it as much as possible without taking away the realism which is essential to firstly, show REALISTIC situations and, secondly, keep your players interested because they will soon question your methods if the drills do not represent a match situation correctly.

Drills - SOCCER HANDBOOK - The Coaching Manual

Aim of the drill is to encourage circulation of the ball by restricting the players to 1 or 2 touches. • Player A begins by passing to C (1) • C then passes back to B (2) • B then passes to D (3) • D passes back to C (4) The sequence (long pass forward -short pass back) continues until ball reaches player A again.
