Harry Potter And The Bible
Those issues aside, the Bible, in both Old and New Testaments, is adamant that it is unacceptable for us to leap to judgment about other people’s moral condition, and Harry Potter serves to confirm the reason for this prohibition: it is that none of us ever knows the full truth about another person. Unlike God himself, we cannot see into their hearts—just as Harry can’t see into the heart of Dudley, Snape, Aunt Petunia, Cho or his father James.

Harry Potter and the Bible
The underlying message of the bible is love and the underlying message of Harry Potter (obviously not as pronounced) is also love. The love that Lily Potter showed when she gave up her life for Harry. "Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends" - Jesus Christ (John 15:13)

Harry Potter in the Bible: A Christian View
Abstract: The author illustrates the many literary ties between Harry Potter and the Holy Bible. [divider] It is widely known that The Holy Bible is the most-printed book in the world. The Harry Potter series by J.K. Rowling tops the New York Times list of best-selling book series of all time. One reason that these two popular books have reached such high levels of recognition could be that they deal with universal themes in all great works of literature: the internal struggle of good and ...

Objections to "Harry Potter" usually reference Deuteronomy 18:10-12, "There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, or one who practices witchcraft, or a soothsayer, or one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer, or one who conjures spells, or a medium, or a spiritist, or one who calls up the dead. For all who do these things are an abomination to the LORD, and because of these abominations the LORD your God drives them out from before you."

Should Christians Be Reading Harry Potter?
The Bible clearly condemns all kinds of witchcraft, sorcery and spiritism (Deuteronomy 18:10-11). Philippians 4:8 says to "fill your minds with those things that are good and that deserve praise: things that are true, noble, right, pure, lovely, and honorable." So does this mean that all Christians should avoid Harry Potter altogether?
