Fast Facts: Youth and Gender Equality. Mar 13, 2017. Women, and young women in particular, face structural discrimination due to the patriarchal nature of most societies. Young women are often amongst the most marginalized, vulnerable and – if they live in rural/remote areas, or precarious human settlements – hardest to reach young people. Young women make up nearly half of the world’s population, yet are regularly prevented from accessing basic services and decent employment.

CULTURE AND YOUTH DEVELOPMENT - United Nations

Youth culture is culture that emerges amongst children, teenagers and young adults. It is the role of youth to challenge the status quo established by tradition or older generations. Where traditional culture provides stability and continuity with the past, youth culture is primarily a force of change. The following are illustrative examples of youth culture.
