Disability Studies An Interdisciplinary Introduction

Dan Goodley's Disability Studies: An Interdisciplinary Introduction aims to demonstrate his understanding of disability as "so complex, so variable, so contingent, so situated..." (p.120) that it cannot be reduced to any singular definition identity, model, or research project or political program. This is why Goodley's book is an excellent introduction to disability studies and is extremely useful to anyone who teaches disability studies or researches in the
