Outsourcing relationship management linking to external service providers In his 2004 book "The Outsourcing Revolution", [2] author Michael Corbett discusses the challenges of integrating two separate business entities (the client and the external service provider) across the different organizational boundaries and differing motivations and objectives.

Outsourcing relationship management - Wikipedia

Outsourcing in general, not just in human resources, delivers positive results if properly and strategically implemented. In the case of HR outsourcing, businesses can reap the following benefits: 1. More time and resources to focus on core competencies. It was mentioned above that HR is an unprofitable department.
