South Africa has not developed a diversity measurement tool, such as the one used by the European Commission to assess risks to media pluralism in member states. 1 A key problem the country faces in tracking the extent of concentration and diversity is that it has no 'objective' 2 means of assessing the extent of diversity, which up to this point has simply been 'read off' the number of existing media outlets. While a plurality of outlets may arguably be a necessary condition for ...
