Legend : A Nate Temple Supernatural Thriller - Book 11 This story isn't one of my favorites. The story was surrounded by lies, upon lies, terrible deaths and deception, slow moving and sometimes confusing with who really was who. Nate continues to wallow about his lack of powers, magic or Fae.

Legend (The Temple Chronicles, #11) by Shayne Silvers

Nate Temple, outwardly a womanising extremely wealthy young man, but all is not quite what it seems. There's a great deal of humour amidst the action, magic and mayhem. The characters are larger than life, realistic (apart from the wizard and werewolf part) and very appealing. A really refreshing difference to the typical tale in this genre.
