Book Review: The Lost Message of Jesus, by Steve Chalke ...

As the book progresses the forgotten message of Jesus seems to undergo something of a metamorphosis. In place of the Kingdom, it becomes the love of God. As often happens in such cases, the plea for the divine love quickly meshes with the charge of lovelessness against the church.

The rejection of the doctrine of creation logically leads to a rejection of the Fall. And this is what Steve Chalke does in his book entitled The Lost Message of Jesus which he coauthored with Alan Mann. In this book, he rejects the doctrine of original sin and replaces it with original goodness. The following rather lengthy extract from page 67 of his book amply demonstrates this point.
