Directions: Diagram the following sentences by placing the coordinating conjunctions on a dotted line between the words that they connect. The exercises in this section will only have compound words (subjects, verbs, adjectives, adverbs, and objects of the preposition). I've given you a hint on the first two questions.

Diagramming Coordinating Conjunctions

The best way to learn diagramming English sentences is to start diagramming the subject-verb combinations and then expand with direct object or indirect object and the modifiers. You will be surprised just how quick you will pick up diagramming by just doing it. Yes, you will need some resources.

Diagramming English Sentences | How To Diagram Sentences

Identify the direct objects and try diagramming the sentences. Linking verbs connect a subject to its predicate. Common linking verbs include be, am, is, are, was, were, been, smell, look, taste, feel, and sound. This diagramming worksheet is tricky because it contains a mix of adjectives, adverbs, and direct objects.

Diagramming Sentences: Worksheets

After I've taught basic diagramming, we can look for the subject, verb, direct objects, and modifiers. Often, with run-on sentences, we will discover a lot of "left-overs" after we diagram the sentence. For fragment sentences, there will be missing spaces where subjects should be.
