Kander, the composer, and Ebb, the lyricist, are two of Broadway's most beloved artists. They first worked on an unproduced musical called Golden Gate — a story that was said by their producer Harold Prince to be “a test” to see if they worked well together. They worked regularly with sensations Liza Minnelli and Chita Rivera, and the team would meet at Harold Prince's home to have “what if” sessions where they would brainstorm ideas and write music.
