In closing, Stockitt offers pastoral resources for dealing with shame. Restoring the Shamed is born out of a concern for practical pastoral issues and offers a cruciform theology that deals with shame, thus filling an important place in pastoral and atonement theology. Its greatest strength is, perhaps, the pastoral resources offered at the end of the book.

Restoring the Shamed: Towards a Theology of Shame - The ...

Restoring the Shamed does not describe itself as a work of Practical or Pastoral Theology, yet it starts from the author's pastoral experiences and returns there with some stories of shamed people and liturgies directed towards them at the end. Furthermore, the methodology used in the book is one of trying to establish resonances between Christian faith and tradition, particularly biblical ...
