The Spell Of The Sensuous

"The Spell of the Sensuous does more than place itself on the cutting edge where ecology meets philosophy, psychology, and history. It magically subverts the dichotomies of culture and nature, body and mind, opening a vista of organic being and human possibility that is often imagined but seldom described.

For me, David Abram's The Spell of The Sensuous is a strong three, but a weak four. A 7 out of 10, which sounds a lot better than 3 out of 5. As in all other ways, this book defies easy categorization. It's hard to say how I felt about it. At times Abram frustrated me -- more than once I rolled my eyes at the text -- and yet his work certainly affected me, provoked internal arguments ...

Spell Of The Sensuous : David Abram : 9780679776390

The Spell of the Sensuous has important things to offer spiritual naturalists, naturalist animists, and others. Abram's work is entirely naturalistic but does not lapse into reductionism. He offers a way to talk about the relationship between nature and culture (assuming for the moment that there is a division between those two things!).
