A Liberal Peace The Problems And Practices Of ...

As Paris has observed, “the process of political and economic liberal- ization is inherently tumultuous: It can exacerbate social tensions and undermine the prospects for stable peace in the fragile conditions that typically exist in countries just emerging from civil war.”16 Some aspects of the liberal peace model are also potentially in tension with each other.

New Perspectives on Liberal Peacebuilding

The central issues that it seeks to address are the problems of achieving lasting peace and cooperation in international relations, and the various methods that could contribute to their achievement. Supporters of liberalism often believe in the spreading of democracy through cooperation.
