When the groom was asked if he promised to love, honor, and cherish his bride, he answered solemnly in Italian, "With every breath I take." Father Lorenzo accepted Mitchell's unusual vow with a grave nod and smiling eyes, while the other Italians in the church exchanged teary smiles and grabbed for handkerchiefs.

Every Breath You Take Somehow I missed reading this book by one of my favorite authors. I had thought she wasn't writing anymore and was thrilled to find this offering. The ending led me to believe there was another book to come, I sure hope so. This was a wonderful story, and very long, which always makes me happy.
